

Deputy Assistant Administrator Cheryl L. Anderson

Cheryl Anderson is the Deputy Assistant Administrator in the Bureau for Africa, where she has been responsible for West Africa and development planning. Before that, she served as the Acting Assistant Administrator for Africa.

Ms. Anderson joined USAID as a Foreign Service Officer in 1988 and has extensive field experience. She served as USAID Mission Director for South and Southern Africa, Ghana, and East Africa, and as Deputy Mission Director for East Africa. Before that, her overseas assignments included Sudan, Eastern and Southern Africa Regional, Uganda, and the Democratic Republic of Congo. She also worked in headquarters in what was called the Asia and Near East Bureau, and in London for Healthlink Worldwide. She began her career as a Peace Corps volunteer in Ghana.

Ms. Anderson received a Bachelor of Arts degree in International Relations from Colgate University in Hamilton, New York, and a Master's of Science in International Development Management from American University in Washington, DC.